Section 2-10-2__.

(a) The Registry of Election Finance, notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, shall do all of the following:

(1) Develop, with the advice, assistance and approval of the office of information resources, an Internet-based electronic filing process for use by all candidates for state public office and all political campaign committees which are required to file statements and reports with the Registry of Election Finance.

(2) Develop, with the advice, assistance and approval of the office of information resources, a system that provides each candidate and campaign committee with secure access to the electronic filing system. The system shall provide safeguards against efforts to tamper or change the data in any way.

(3) Provide training to candidates and campaign committees on the use of the electronic filing system.

(4) Develop, with the advice, assistance and approval of the office of information resources, a system that will forward a copy of any candidate's report filed electronically with the Registry of Election Finance to the appropriate local county election commission as required in T.C.A. §2-10-105(a).

(5) Beginning with the 2002 regular August election, if practicable, and with the advice, assistance and approval of the office of information resources, provide to the public full access to a list of campaign contributions made to candidates by posting such list on the Internet. Such lists shall not be subject to the provisions of §2-10-111. In addition, the registry shall provide assistance to anyone seeking to access this information on the Internet. Campaign donations lists shall not be made available on the Internet until the lists for each candidate running for the same office are available and such lists shall be made available on the Internet as simultaneously as is practicable.

(b) The Registry of Election Finance, once the development of the electronic filing system is completed and tested, shall provide public notice that the system is operational and available for filers to commence use.

(c) The Registry of Election Finance shall, if practicable, and with the advice, assistance and approval of the office of information resources, implement the electronic filing system for use in the 2002 regular August election and all subsequent state elections. Candidates for state public offices and campaign committees may commence electronic filing for any state election beginning in the year 2002 after the effective date of this act and after notice has been given pursuant to subsection (b) and may continue to file electronically all reports for any subsequent state elections.

(d) All information entered by any candidate or campaign committee into the electronic filing system shall remain confidential until the information is filed with the Registry of Election Finance.

SECTION 6. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 2, Chapter 10, Part 1, is amended by adding the following language as a new, appropriately designated section:

Section 2-10-121. No later than sixty (60) days after the effective date of this act, each multicandidate political campaign committee registered with the Registry of Election Finance shall pay a registration fee of seventy-five dollars ($75.00). For any multicandidate political campaign committee registering a new committee during the year 2002 after the effective date of this act, the committee shall pay the registration fee at the time that it certifies its political treasurer. No later than January 31 each year thereafter, each multicandidate political campaign committee registered with the Registry of Election Finance shall pay a registration fee of seventy-five dollars ($75.00). For any multicandidate political campaign committee registering a new committee during any year, the committee shall pay the registration fee at the time that it certifies its political treasurer. All fees collected by the Registry of Election Finance under the provisions of this section shall be retained by the Registry and used for expenses related to maintaining an electronic filing system.

SECTION 7. The increase in contribution limits authorized pursuant to Sections 1, 2 and 3 of this act shall only apply to elections held through the regular November election in 2004 at which time Sections 1, 2 and 3 of this act are repealed and the provisions of Tennessee Code Annotated amended by the provisions of such sections are revived in their entireties as such
